

WHAT IS A JURAT?

This is a “mini” certificate at the bottom of many family court forms stating when, before whom, and where it was made. The author of the document is swearing/affirming that written statements contained therein are true and correct.

EXAMPLE OF A JURAT:

Sworn/Affirmed before me at:
..... (municipality) in
..... (province, state or country) on
..... (date)
..... Commissioner for taking affidavits (Type or print name below if signature illegible.) Signature (This form to be signed in front of a lawyer, justice of the peace, notary public or commissioner for taking affidavits.)